Subject: RE: Concerns about statements?

Dr Lysko,

I am disturbed there is an employee on the staff of TVLC who "cares little" about me and my concerns, and thinks that my fellow interested parents are "cronies".

Consider this a formal complaint from me: I request that he be reviewed for immediate employment termination.

I consider any complaint of defamation nullified by his unwillingness to identify the statements of concern, to give me the opportunity to retract them.

Sincerely,

Matt Weingart

I care little about your review, or you, for that matter.

Please refrain from emailing me again or you will be met with a restraining order in addition to the law suit for defamation.

Feel free to share this email with any of your cronies.

Mr Austin,

I've just been informed you have concerns that I've made statements that have been defamatory of you.

Please inform me of the statements of concern. I will be pleased to review them for accuracy.
